(ii) Non-finalisation of the Core Network for the various districts of the State.

(iii) Delay in preparation of proposals for roadworks for the year 2003-04 and submission for scrutiny to the State Technical Agency.

(iv) Need for training of the Field Engineers in the proper technique of road design and construction.

(d) Officials of the Ministry of Rural Development twice visited Jharkhand during 2003 to take stock. A meeting was also held between Minister (Rural Development) and Chief Minister, Jharkhand, in Delhi on 25.6.2003. In order to reduce delays in commencement and to ensure timely completion of road works, the State Government was advised to:

(i) Complete the on-going road works sanctioned for 2000-01 on priority and wherever necessary, submit revised estimates of such road works for consideration of the Ministry at the earliest.

(ii) Operationalise the second tier of the quality control mechanism along with necessary infrastructure like field laboratories and post staff wherever necessary.

(iii) Establish without delay the State level autonomous body as required under PMGSY guidelines.

(iv) Update data for the Online Monitoring and Management System (OMMS) established for PMGSY.

(v) Prepare Detailed Project Reports for new road works since the state has been selected for world bank funding.
